

Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis and business woman Shloka Ambani 'Solar School' initiative in Gadchiroli

Gadchiroli, Pankaj Pethé :

On the initiative of Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis and with the social support of Shloka Ambani, a member of the Ambani Group of Companies and Director of 'Rosy Blue Foundation', an important initiative has been started for solar energy of Zilla Parishad schools in the Naxal-affected and remote Gadchiroli district.

Special appreciation from the Chief Minister Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis took note of the social work of the Rosy Blue Foundation and its volunteer platform 'Connect For' and specially praised them. The Chief Minister himself had suggested that Shloka Ambani and Maniti Shah, founder of 'Connect For', should focus specifically on Gadchiroli district. The Chief Minister said that the initiative taken by Shloka Ambani, a member of the Ambani Group, to strengthen educational infrastructure in Gadchiroli, which has been declared an 'Aspirational District' by the NITI Aayog, is highly commendable. He also assured that all possible cooperation will be extended to the project through the district administration.

Solar project approved for 10 schools in Dhanorataluka

Following the Chief Minister's suggestion, Gadchiroli Zilla Parishad Chief Executive Officer Suhagade approved the work of Rosy Blue Foundation under the 'Solar School Project' on October 31, 2025. In the first phase, the foundation undertook an initiative to provide solar energy based units to ten Zilla Parishad schools in Dhanorataluka. This includes Zilla Parishad Primary Schools Dhanora, Muskyra, Salebhathi, Rangli, Nimgaon, Dudmala, Murumgaon, Bandhona, as well as Zilla Parishad High Schools Dhanora and Mohali. This project will provide uninterrupted facilities for teaching and digital educational activities in schools, reducing their dependence on power supply, and will directly benefit about 1,470 students in these schools. The 'Solar School Project', launched in collaboration with Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis and Shloka Ambani, Director of 'Rosy Blue Foundation', is becoming a new model for providing sustainable, clean and reliable energy to the education system in Gadchiroli district.
